01 Why Christie's?

Christie's is the world's leading art business, a name and place that speaks of extraordinary art, unparalleled service and international glamour.

Christie's has state of the art rooms, in two prestigious central London locations, which offer exceptional possibilities for entertaining.

02 History

Founded in 1766 by James Christie, Christie's auction house has conducted the greatest auctions of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries and today remains leader in the art business.

Christie's holds over 600 sales annually including all areas of decorative arts, jewellery, photographs, collectibles, wine and more.

Christie's has 85 offices in 43 countries and 14 sale rooms including London: 8 King Street SW1 and 85 Old Brompton Road SW7.

03

Christie's King Street

Christie's King Street covers 12,000sq ft and offers a variety of impressive event spaces in the heart of St. James's, Piccadilly.

The venue can accommodate a range of events from intimate dinners for 10 to receptions for 600. The varied scale programme from traditional to contemporary provides a unique setting to suit every event.

04

Christie's South Kensington

At the centre of London's museum district, Christie's South Kensington offers a series of versatile, modern spaces with an ever-changing programme of sales which can serve as a unique backdrop to your event.

The flexibility of the venue allows a range of events from intimate drinks receptions and dinners to parties for up to 1000 guests.

05
