Simeon Lipman, Head of Pop Culture comments: "Solid prices were achieved in today's sale and we witnessed a rising market for Grunge memorabilia, with 100% sold lots from artists such as Kurt Cobain and Alice in Chains. We were pleased with the result of the handwritten lyrics submitted by the teenage Bob Dylan, which realized $12,500, with the proceeds going to the Herzl Camp. One of the most important artifacts of television memorabilia, Bob Crane's iconic leather jacket from Hogan's Heroes, doubled its high estimate and achieved $40,000."
