Charles Curtis, MW, Head of North American Wine Sales, commented: "The rally in prices for blue-chip Burgundy and Bordeaux continued on Saturday at Christie's third sale of the fall auction season. DRC was the clear front-runner in price among fine Burgundy, with mature vintages of Lafite, Latour, and Pétrus among the stand-outs in Bordeaux prices. A special section of fine spirits drew strong interest, especially for the very first U.S. offering of the 1964 Bowmore Trilogy, which sold for $21,600. We look forward to presenting more unique offerings - some perfect for gift-giving - at our December 9 Evening Sale of Fine and Rare Wines."
