Rahul Kadakia, Head of Jewelry at Christie's New York and Auctioneer for the event comments: "The auction room at Christie's was alive with excitement as several hundred clients and friends of BVLGARI gathered in support of this wonderful fund-raising event for Save The Children's Rewrite The Future campaign. Bidders in the room, on the phone, and online from as far away as Australia competed head-to-head for the 18 exceptional items donated by BVLGARI, driving prices well beyond their retail value in some cases. We are delighted to report that a remarkable $1.5 million was raised for this deserving cause in just over 30 minutes of bidding, bringing the grand total raised thus far by BVLGARI to over $9 million."
