Chris Munro, Head of London Wine Department: "A superb result for the Finest and Rarest Wines including a Superb Private Collection sale held on the 27 March in London. We were particularly pleased with the Superb Private Collection, which far exceeded its pre-sale estimate by an outstanding 35%, realising a total of £695,647. Highlights from the sale include a rare case of Côte Rôtie La Mouline 1978 from Guigal, selling for £23,500. Fine Burgundy from Henri Jaye again saw strong results, as a case of Nuits-Saint-Georges, Les Meurgers 1976 fetched an impressive £21,150. Elsewhere in the sale, we witnessed renewed interest in finest Bordeaux, as six magnums of Pétrus 1982 made £35,250. The auction saw notable online participation with 57% of lots selling to or directly underbid by the internet through Christie's LIVE™. We look forward to our next sale of Signature Cellars online only sale that opens for bidding on Thursday, 3rd April."
