PRESS RELEASE | HONG KONG | 22 September 2016

THE PAVILION SALE-
Chinese Ceramics and Works of Art
On 4 October 2016

Hong Kong – On 4 October, 2016, Christie's Hong Kong will host The Pavilion Sale, a continuation of this successful series, first introduced in October 2014.

The specially curated sale of 198 lots include highlights offered from several private collections such as The Dexinshuwu Collection and the collection of a German family, which features remarkable pieces of Tang sancal wares, Song ceramics, bronze censers, furniture and other works of art. Additionally the sale offers jade carvings from the Han to Ming dynasty, porcelain from the Ming and Qing dynasties, as well as other works.

Ruben Lien, Vice President, Senior Specialist, commented, “With estimates ranging from HKD 15,000 to HKD 600,000, the sale offers an affordable and assessable platform for collectors looking to explore Chinese works of art. These beautiful and diverse pieces offer both new and established collectors an opportunity to enrich their collections and to enhance a cultured lifestyle”.
