PROPERTY FROM THE JUDD FOUNDATION

May 9, 2006

New York - On May 9, as part of the Post-War & Contemporary Art Evening Sale, Christie's New York will offer Property from the Judd Foundation. The selection of works by Donald Judd will provide an overview of the artist's career, the earliest work dating from the early sixties, the latest one executed the year before his death, 1993. The estimated value of the group is $17/24 million.

Christie's will exhibit the works on the 20th floor of 1230 Avenue of the Americas, at Rockefeller Center, where they will be shown in spaces that will be specially designed for this purpose remaining true to Judd's clearly articulated ideas regarding the important connection between art and its spatial context.

Judd Foundation is selling part of their collection to create an endowment that will be used, in accordance with Donald Judd's last will and testament, to realize the mission of Judd Foundation to preserve the artist's permanent installations in New York and Marfa, and catalogue the extensive archives and libraries to advance scholarship in furtherance of Donald Judd's legacy.

More information about the sale and the viewing will be released in due course.
