Comment: Chris Munro, Head of London Wine Department: Christie's Wine Department was very pleased to host a fantastic pre-sale tasting conducted by four prestigious Piedmont producers prior to the auction at South Kensington. This event drew many new faces to the sale room enjoying the great wines on show. Prices at the sale continued to hold firm despite the wobbles in the City with strong results for traditional classics such as Chateau Latour 1966 fetching £3,450 for a full dozen and Chateau Leoville-Las-Cases 1982 making a respectable £2,530 for a full case.
