"Tonight's auction realised the highest total for any Swiss Art Sale ever, SFr. 23,853,900. We are delighted with this result, which consolidates the strength of the Swiss art market and the world leading position of Christie's in this segment. The entire auction saw very strong Swiss and international bidding, resulting in nine works selling above SFr. 1 million and establishing three new world auction records amongst the top 10 lots sold. The highlight of the evening was Ferdinand Hodler's Der Brienzersee von Breitlauenen aus, sold for SFr. 3,600,000 and Giovanni Giacometti's Winterlandschaft bei Maloja, realising SFr. 2,520,00, establishing a new world auction record for the artist," said Hans-Peter Keller, Head of Swiss Art department.
