COMMENT: Theow Tow, Deputy Chairman Christie's Americas and Asia and Athena Zonars, Head of the Chinese Art department "The single-owner sale presenting the collection of Evelyn Annenberg Hall offered a glimpse into a very refined and traditional way of collecting, and revealed a collecting couple touched by a wide range of interests and a limitless energy to search for the best. Literally every single piece in this well-known collection, fresh to the market, was highly sought-after, which made the sale triple its pre-sale estimate and selling for 100%. The room and surrounding corridors were filled with clients and the bidding activity - masterfully led by Christie's Honorary Chairman Christopher Burge - was heated, both on the floor and on the phones. Highlights were many, the most spectacular of which was the fabulous blue and white pear-shaped vase, Qianlong, which went for a staggering $1.14 million. The sale saw strong East Asian activity, including from Mainland Chinese clients."
