Comment: Ed Plackett, specialist in charge of the sale:

“Yesterday's sale of 19th century European art including Russian pictures was a great success, realising over £1million and making it the most successful 19th- Century European sale ever at South Kensington. There was strong bidding throughout the sale, a packed saleroom and intense competition for the top lots. The Russian market continues to be very dynamic as evidenced by Russian pictures making three of the top five prices. We look forward to our next sales on 7th June at South Kensington and 14th June at King Street.”
