Charles Curtis, MW, Head of North American Wine Sales, commented: "We are delighted with the excellent results achieved at our first New York sale of the 2009 season. A mix of private collectors and trade buyers from around the world gathered online, on the telephone, and in our salesroom to bid for case lots and large-format bottles of highly-coveted wines, including excellent clarets, Burgundies, and California wines. With over 240 registered bidders and 95% of lots sold, it seems the wine market has sprung to life. We look forward to our next sale on April 25, our evening sale on May 19, and our flagship summer sale, taking place at a waterfront estate in the Hamptons on June 6."
