Comment: Harriet Joll, Senior Specialist, London Wine Department:

“We are delighted with the results of this sale which reflect the quality and international appeal of the rare wines on offer. Of particular interest were the collections of rare Bordeaux and Burgundies at the beginning of the morning and afternoon sessions. These included the top lot of the sale, a jeroboam of Chateau Petrus of the great 1961 vintage which sold for £26,400.”
