COMMENT: Richard Brierley, Head of North American Wine Sales: "A packed morning tasting, a busy saleroom and a fantastic lunch cooked by Thomas Keller for wine lovers who traveled from across the country provided the Department with a good omen for this, our first Saturday wine sale held at Christie's Rockefeller in New York. The expected strong demand for top-level Bordeaux and Burgundy was more than matched by enthusiasm for wines of lesser monetary value but still of excellent quality and provenance – including our Californian offering in the afternoon. An encouraging start for our new wine sale schedule here at Christie's."
