COMMENT: "It's evident from the trend in spending patterns of buyers that quality and rarity is supreme in the marketplace. Buyers are almost spoilt with diversity and can afford to be evermore discerning when competing for works of quality. It will be our task to deliver to this increasingly discerning and astute market. We are pleased with the results yielded in the context of the tightening world cash market of the recent week coupled with an extensive sale schedule ahead. We have already turned our attention to the exclusive Joseph Brown Collection on 17 May and look forward to presenting it to the astute art buying public." said Jon Dwyer, Director of Paintings, Christie's Australia.
