COMMENT: Catherine Leonhard, Head of American Paintings, Christie's Los Angeles:
“Last night's sale was our highest grossing auction to date, reaching nearly $4.4 million and exceeding the record sale in November, 2004 of $4.2 million. The sale was highlighted by rare and important California and Western paintings which created a buzz throughout the art community and culminated in fierce competitive bidding during the auction. We were especially thrilled with the result of the Nicolai Fechin Indian Girl with Sunflowers of $1,080,000 - surpassing our previous record for a work by Fechin entitled The Drum Player which we sold in November 2002 for $460,500.”
