Richard Brierley, Specialist in charge of the sale, says: "For the second time this year at Christie's New York, an exceptional single-owner collection, with impeccable provenance and featuring the very best from the last 25 years of Bordeaux winemaking, attracted fierce bidding from European, South American and Asian bidders. There was also very strong participation from American buyers, both private collectors and the trade – and we now look forward to our Finest and Rarest Wines from an Important West Coast Collection this coming Saturday in Los Angeles."
