“Bordeaux's dominance from the previous evening auction continued on into the day sale. Saturday's sale was a skillful assemblage of the newly released 2003 vintage claret, top selections from the great Bordeaux vintages of the mid 1990s & 1980s, and the mature vintages from the 1960s. The parcels of top vintage Bordeaux were plentiful enough to satisfy all buyers and were the recipient of much attention and sustained bidding. Clearly the desire for 2003 First Growth Bordeaux was on everyone's mind as prices reached the top of the range for nearly all of the parcel lots. Christie's looks forward to a full Fall schedule that will bring some of the world's best collections to one of the company's finest salerooms,” said Scott Torrence, Head of Wine Sales, Christie's Los Angeles
