Comment: Chris Munro, Head of Sale said:

“The first of three sales for the London wine department in May continued to illustrate that the thirst for the very Finest and Rarest wines remains strong. A high percentage sold total reflected the high quality of the sale and we witnessed active bidding from around the globe via telephones and Christie's Live™. Highlights included firm prices for blue chip Bordeaux with a dozen bottles of the famed Pomerol Chateau Le Pin 2000 making over £20,000. We also saw a surge in demand for all vintages of Chateau Lafite-Rothschild driven by the strong Asian market.”

“We look forward to our impressive single owner collection A Superlative Private Collection of Finest & Rarest Bordeaux at King Street on the 22nd May.”
