COMMENT: Mary Peck, Vice President and Specialist for the Post-War and Contemporary Art department: "This Morning Session was filled with special, high-quality works of art and we are thrilled with the results, which totaled nearly $21 million and set a new record for a day sale total for the 7th consecutive season. There was heated bidding between new and seasoned collectors from around the world, with many of the top lots being bought by Americans. Buyers are hungry for art of our time and 6 of the top 10 lots were great examples by some of the best living artists from the Post-War generation. We also set new world auction records for Conrad Marca-Relli at $216,000 and Mel Ramos at $284,800."
