“In a packed saleroom strong prices were achieved through competitive bidding on a number of top lots across all categories. Pieces with good provenance, rarity and of high quality attracted exceptionally high levels of interest. The top lot of the sale, a Yuan dynasty 14th century dish with particularly rare decoration from a European private collection (lot 211) sold for more than three times its pre-sale estimate at £333,600. We are also very pleased with the result for an Imperial ivory carving of a seated lady (lot 61), which was sold for £288,000,” said Ruben Lien, Head of Sale
