COMMENT: Aurel Bacs, International Co-Head of Watches at Christie's "Christie's achieved today the largest total ever for a sale in this category, and set several strong prices and numerous world auction records. A stunning $ 13.6 million exceeded the low pre-sale estimate of $8 Million by far. The new saleroom at the Four Seasons Hotel des Bergues attracted an international audience and was packed during all three sale sessions. At every level of value, Christie's continues to provide the very best marketplace to offer and to buy fine and rare watches. Christie's continue to respond to the exceedingly demanding market by providing collectors watches that are fresh to the market and realistically estimated."
