"We were delighted with the spirited bidding and strong prices in all our traditional collecting fields--including Georgian silver by Paul Storr and Paul de Lamerie, German Renaissance cabinet pieces, and French gold boxes. American silver also performed well, from the magnificent Federal period presentation urn to Tiffany enamels of the late 19th century. And we look forward to the continued growth in the field of modern silver, where stunning works by Georg Jensen, Buccellati, and Puiforcat resonate so clearly with our clients" said Jennifer Pitman, Head of Sale.
