Comments: Virgilio Garza, Head of the Latin American Art department: "After a very well-attended viewing, tonight's sale of Latin American Art continued in a vibrant mood. We were delighted with the result of Botero's The Musicians, which at $2,032,000 set a new world auction record for the artist and a record for a living Latin American artist. The record price for the sale's cover lot, Wifredo Lam's haunting gouache, Untitled ($1,304,000 and the high prices for the surrealist-inspired Tamayo painting Naturaleza Muerta ($531,000); and Tamayo's Dessert ($475,200) all point in the direction of an audience that is increasingly susceptible to provenance. These three works had never been on the market before and this feature undoubtedly contributed to their being vied for by several collectors. New world auction records were set for Lam, Botero, Rodolfo Morales and Goeritz. In tonight's sale buyers were 40% American, 26% Latin American, 4% European, 2% Asian and 28% others. We are looking forward to the continuation of the Latin American Art sale tomorrow."
