“Today’s auction revealed a robust silver market. Buyer interest was across the board, from modern decorative pieces, such as the Art Deco dinnerservice by Puiforcat, to traditional connoisseur’s pieces by Paul de Lamerie, Paul Storr, and Paul Revere. There was broad participation at all levels of the market, with very active bidding on lots from $2,000 to $200,000,” said Jeanne Sloane, Head of Silver Department at Christie’s New York.
