David Elswood, International Head of Wine for Christie's said: "We are delighted with the encouraging results of this auction, proving the continuing strength and importance of Hong Kong as the undisputed fine wine hub in Asia. Demand for the finest quality Bordeaux dominated the sale with 11 cases of Château Lafite 1982 realising a total of HK$3.2million. Elsewhere, top Burgundies from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and Henri Jayer attracted considerable bidding activity underlining the unrelenting and growing demand in Hong Kong for the finest wines with perfect provenance."
