“This morning's sale saw vibrant and enthusiastic bidding for contemporary Southeast Asian art, with many pieces selling far above their pre-sale estimates, indicating a coming of age for contemporary Southeast Asian art. Overwhelming support for modern masters included record prices for Le Mayeur and Hendra Gunawan. The robust results signify the continued rise in interest in contemporary Southeast Asian art, with an unprecedented level of appreciation from collectors around the world,” said Ruoh-Ling Keong, Vice President & Head of the Southeast Asian Pictures Department, Christie's.
