COMMENT: Rupert Banner, International Head of Christie's Car Department and Christopher Sanger, Specialist in Charge of the Sale:

"The results of Christie's second Greenwich Concours sale were solid, with a sale total of over $3.1m, 50% more than last year's total, and a 78% sales rate. Both private collections performed very well. The three Packards - Property of a Gentleman - all sold and were led by the 1930 Speedster Roadster which was bought by a local collector for $459,000. Throughout the viewing buyers, bidders and spectators were serenaded by the recordings of the late Sergio Franchi - and his cars proved just as popular, with 8 of the 9 finding new homes - including his fabulous Isotta Fraschini, which realized $666,200. The entire collection fetched $1.23 million. Christie's now looks forward to its annual Monterey auction on August 17."
