COMMENT: Richard Brierley, Head of North American Wine Sales: "A vibrant Saturday saleroom saw eager bidders join a throng of international phone bidders across the globe, competing in an auction that saw strong prices realized across all levels of the fine wine market. Prices for blue chip stocks are returning to levels not seen since 2000, and it was gratifying to see continued and renewed interest for the wines of California. We look forward to a successful conclusion to our Spring sale season in North America in Los Angeles on June 24 and 25."
