“An exceptional offering of large format bottles directly from the reserve cellars of Château Latour opened the sale with a record price for a jeroboam from the 1961 vintage being achieved. Elsewhere, pristine cases of Romanee-Conti wines featured extensively and a further auction record achieved for a pristine case of Château d'Yquem 1971 in magnums. Even with the established strength of the pound, our London sales continue to deliver top prices in a global market,” said David Elswood, International Head of Wine Department
