Comment: Alexis de Tiesenhausen, International Head Russian Art Department:

“Following Christie's exciting jewellery sale this morning, celebrated by a rare Fabergé Buddha which was sold to a Russian buyer, today's Russian sale achieved £11,260,325 / $20,002,675. Important Russian works were sold to sought after / highly experienced collectors in the country and highlighted by Ivan Shishkin's Mast Pine Forest in Viatka Province which sold for over three times its pre-sale estimate to another Russian client.

This concludes the spring season (UK/US) for Russian Art at Christie's with a combined sale total of $44,672,311.”
