“The superb results of today’s auction, including two Royal collections, demonstrate the enthusiasm for jewellery of exceptional provenance. The 41 jewels from the collection of HRH Princess Maria Gabriella di Savoia realised £1,703,164 ($3,358,639), led by the magnificent Fabergé tiara which set a new world record price for a tiara at auction. HRH Princess Elizabeth of Yugoslavia’s collection realised £803,280 ($1,189,657). The result of the sale demonstrates the outstanding strength of the diamond market and London’s preeminent position in selling outstanding jewellery,” said Raymond Sancroft-Baker, Director of Christie’s Jewellery, London.
