COMMENT: Desmond Healey, Director and Head of Department:

"The sale today demonstrates that the market remains strong but selective. Condition and well-placed estimates continue to be important factors for good sale results, with rare pieces in sound condition consistently fetching high prices. Strong bidding was witnessed for property from the estate of the late Henry Sclater (lots 372-383) which realised £71,637 and was 100% sold by lot and value."
