Ginette Lospinso, Head of Interiors for Christie's New York, comments: "Smart buyers clearly recognized an opportunity to collect items with excellent museum and estate provenance, which yielded strong results for American and European paintings and for fine jewelry, including signed pieces by Tiffany and Cartier, among others. We are especially pleased with the prices achieved for works by American artist William McDougal Hart and 20th century Israeli artist Michael Argov. We now look forward to our June 30 & July 1 sale, which features fine art from the Hirshhorn Museum and from the Collection of Betty Freeman, as well as furniture and decorative objects from a New York townhouse decorated by celebrated interior designer Bunny Williams."
