“Once again, the allure of the R.M.S. Titanic played a central role in this morning proceedings at Christie’s New York annual Ocean Liner sale. The deck log from the first recovery ship on the scene, the S.S. Mackay-Bennett, more than doubled our highest pre-sale expectations and was the top lot of a R.M.S. Titanic memorabilia section that totaled $193,140. Elsewhere in the sale, period posters and Art Deco artifacts from the S.S. Normandie performed particularly well,” says Gregg Dietrich, Christie’s Maritime and Ocean Liner specialist
