COMMENT: Scott Torrence, Specialist in the Los Angeles Wine Department:

“The Los Angeles sale provided a fitting ending to our very successful Spring season. Again, prices for mature Bordeaux – especially 1982s – were at a premium, with stern competition from around the globe for these stocks; mature Burgundies, Rhônes and half-bottle Sauternes also attracted serious attention from our buoyant buyers. 1994s California Cabernets, when offered in pristine consignments, achieved prices worthy of their reputation – with cult cabernets from Harlan and Colgin dominating the top price tier. We look forward in anticipation to October 8, when Christie's Los Angeles holds the sale of The Magnificent Private Cellar of Lee Kramer.”
