Ginette Lospinoso, Head of Interiors for Christie's New York, comments: "We are delighted with the exceptional results achieved at our final Interiors sale of the Spring season. With a sell-through rate of 97%, virtually every collecting field represented within the sale performed very strongly – including silver, glass, ceramics, Asian works of art, furniture, and fine and decorative art. Sculptural works and ceramics proved particularly enticing for bidders, with fierce competition driving prices well beyond their estimates. In addition, fine art consigned by the Hirshhorn Museum sold very well, with three works ranking among our top ten prices."
