Comment: Nicholas Lambourn and Tom Lamb, Directors of Christie's, London and specialists in charge of the sale:

“The star of the sale was George Chinnery's Reeves Macao album of 1836-37, which was secured by a private bidder from Macao after a fierce bidding duel between two telephones in the room - the price, almost five times the pre-sale estimate, is a world record auction price for George Chinnery. We look forward to our upcoming Travel Week of sales in September and to another Asian-led Travel sale in July 2007.”
