COMMENT: Dermot Chichester, Chairman, and Rupert Banner, International Head of Christie's Car Department:

"Following on from a successful sale in 2005, Christie's achieved a similar total with 40% fewer lots and a remarkable selling percentage of 81% in a vibrant auction. The final lot, the exceptional 1928 Mercedes-Benz Torpedo Roadster sold to Michigan philanthropist, Mr J.Peter Ministrelli for $3,645,000. Christie's presence in the U.S. car market continues to be well supported, with private American buyers dominating the sale."
