Ariana Hartsock, Head of Sale, comments: “We are pleased that today's sale set seven new world auction records led by our beautiful cover lot, Martha Walter's Pink Umbrella. Achieving an impressive $266,500, this exceptional Impressionist work exceeded its estimate and the previous world auction record for the artist by a wide margin. We were also delighted with the results on a number of top lots today, including David Burliuk's Florida Everglades, which realized a remarkable $92,500 against its estimate of $15,000-25,000, and Preston Dickinson's Factory, a striking work on paper that achieved an excellent $68,500. We now look forward to our Important American Paintings, Drawings and Sculpture auction taking place on December 4.”
