Will Strafford, Specialist Head of the European Furniture and Decorative Arts Department in New York:

"We raised the curtain on our fall season with a sale that demonstrated tremendous energy and enthusiasm from a global audience. The sale of contents from a San Francisco apartment paid tribute to the design acumen and great taste of Valerian Rybar and Jean-François Daigre and soared above its high estimate to fetch $602,358. The strength of the market for 20th century furniture was amply demonstrated by the staggering price of the two dining tables designed by Jansen and supplied to Charles and Jayne Wrightsman. We are now looking forward to the outstanding series of October sales that make up Christie's European Decorative Arts Month."
