Aviva Itzkowitz, Head of Sale, comments: "We are delighted with the new world auction records achieved today for works by American artists Edward Kemeys, John Fabian Carlson, Rolph Scarlett, and Thomas Manley. Museum provenance clearly enticed bidders today, with works consigned from the collections of the Montclair Art Museum and the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden yielding particularly strong prices. In all, we were pleased to see so many private collectors competing aggressively for the top works in today's sale. We now look forward to our December sale of Important American Paintings, Drawings and Sculpture here in New York."
