Hong Kong – This Spring, Christie's Wine Department is honoured to present: The Ultimate Private Collection Featuring The Greatest Burgundies, the latest in a strong line-up of renowned private collections offered over the past few seasons. This single-owner dedicated live sale will take place on 20 May at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre and will convene the greatest wine connoisseurs from around the world.

This meticulously curated collection features some of the world's finest and rarest wines, focusing on wine producers that have an established reputation for stunning wines that are highly sought-after and are thrillingly complex and amongst the very finest examples from their appellation.

The main focus of this private collection is the diverse and exemplary offering of exceedingly rare top-quality Burgundy, led by legendary bottles from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and Domaine Leroy. The sale also features an wide array of mouth-watering Champagne, with vintages from Krug, Dom Pérignon, to name a few. Completing the private collection are legendary vintages from the Bordeaux First Growth Châteaux, historic vintages of Port and Madeira and Tuscany's Sassicaia.

Michelle Chan, Head of Wine, Christie's Asia Pacific, commented: "Christie's wine department once again builds on its tradition in offering the greatest single-owner collections at auction, having achieved exceptional results in December 2020 and this March. We are thrilled to be convening global collectors for this momentous offering of exceptional Burgundy, with its breath and quality truly a sight to behold. Given the small quantities of bottles in existence by these leading producers, we are confident the auction will attract heated participation, marking a rare occasion in the wine world to acquire such treasures."

Tim Triptree MW, International Director, Wines & Spirits, Christie's, stated: "In my sixteen-year career working at Christie's this stunning private collection is one of the finest selections of rare and exceptional wines that Christie's has offered for sale. In particular, the offering of Burgundy is breath-taking; a treasure-trove of highly sought-after superlative wines."

Complimenting this live auction will be an online sale starting from 28 May, offering over 400 lots of top Burgundies such as DRCs and Leroy, as well as a wide array of stunning Bordeaux in case quantities. Details of this online auction will be announced shortly.

About Christie's

Christie's is a name and place that speaks of extraordinary art, unparalleled service and international expertise. Founded in 1766 by James Christie, Christie's has conducted the greatest and most celebrated auctions through the centuries providing a popular showcase for the unique and the beautiful. Christie's offers around 350 auctions annually in over 80 categories, including all areas of fine and decorative arts, jewellery, photographs, collectibles, wine, and more. Prices range from $200 to over $100 million. Christie's also has a long and successful history conducting Private Sales for clients and online sales are offered year-round across all categories. Christie's global presence is spread across a network of international salerooms and 61 representatives and offices. Christies.com provides detailed articles and videos on the objects offered for sale alongside the latest advances in digital viewing tools to make Christie's accessible to all.

Private Sales are an integral and complementary part of Christie's global business and in 2020 contributed $1.5 billion (£1.2 billion), a record year for the platform at Christie's and an increase of 84% YoY. Christie's Private Sales offers a seamless service for buying and selling art outside of the auction calendar. From fine and decorative arts to jewellery and watches, our specialists will use Christie's global network to help shape your collection, connect you with the right people and broker a sale. In addition, the Private Sales team hold regular curated exhibitions around the world. Christie's founder James Christie regularly offered Private Sales, most notably the sale in the 18th Century of the magnificent art collection amassed by Great Britain's first Prime Minister, Sir Robert Walpole to Catherine the Great of Russia which formed the core of Russia's Hermitage collection.
