New York – Christie's is pleased to present Matisse on Paper: Prints & Drawings from the Estate of Jacquelyn Miller Matisse, an online-only auction of drawings and prints by Henri Matisse — offered directly from the Estate of Jacquelyn Miller Matisse. At Mme. Matisse's request, her estate will benefit charitable organizations, including The Alzheimer's Research Institute, The National Foundation for Autism Research, Société Française du Cancer, and The Art Institute of Chicago.

With 47 lots to browse, the sale includes dynamic works on paper by one of the defining modern masters of the 20th century. Estimates start at US$2,000 and the sale is open for bidding between June 9-23.

Margaux Morel, Head of Online Sales, Impressionist & Modern Art, Christie's, remarked: "Christie's is honored to offer selections of drawings and prints by Henri Matisse from the Estate of Jacquelyn Miller Matisse. This carefully curated auction, sold to benefit multiple charitable organizations, highlights the artist's focus on the figure and nature through the power of the line."

The sale can be viewed in person, by appointment only, at Christie's New York galleries from 14–23 June.
