PRICE REALIZED: $187,500

New York – Christie's New York online sale Art of China | Including Property from the Junkunc Collection (June 11-29) achieved a total of $1,629,250 with 266% hammer above low estimate and 86% sold by lot. There was global participation with bidders from 15 countries across 5 continents.

The top lot of the sale was a Dehua Figure of a Guanyin from the 17th-18th century, which sold for $187,500 after a marathon 61 bids. Additionally, strong results were achieved for jade carvings, gilt bronzes, porcelains and scholar's objects from the collection of Stephen Junkunc, III; Qing porcelains from an important private New York collection; and huanghuali furniture from a prominent estate.

Chinese paintings from the collection of the Lee Family of Chicago, Illinois, commanded impressive prices, as did paintings sold by the Yale University Art Gallery to benefit acquisition funds including Chen Qikuan (Chen Chi-Kwan, 1921-2007), Where The Buffaloes Roam, that sold for over five times its estimate realizing $27,500.

About Christie's

Founded in 1766, Christie's is a world-leading art and luxury business. Renowned and trusted for its expert live and online auctions, as well as its bespoke private sales, Christie's offers a full portfolio of global services to its clients, including art appraisal, art financing, international real estate and education. Christie's has a physical presence in 46 countries, throughout the Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia Pacific, with flagship international sales hubs in New York, London, Hong Kong, Paris and Geneva. It also is the only international auction house authorized to hold sales in mainland China (Shanghai).

Christie's auctions span more than 80 art and luxury categories, at price points ranging from $200 to over $100 million. In recent years, Christie's has achieved the world record price for an artwork at auction (Leonardo da Vinci's Salvador Mundi, 2017), for a single collection sale (the Collection of Peggy and David Rockefeller, 2018), and for a work by a living artist (Jeff Koons' Rabbit, 2019).

Christie's Private Sales offers a seamless service for buying and selling art, jewellery and watches outside of the auction calendar, working exclusively with Christie's specialists at a client's individual pace.

Recent innovations at Christie's include the groundbreaking sale of the first NFT for a digital work of art ever offered at a major auction house (Beeple's Everydays, March 2021), with the unprecedented acceptance of cryptocurrency as a means of payment. As an industry leader in digital innovation, Christie's also continues to pioneer new technologies that are redefining the business of art, including the creation of viewing and bidding experiences that integrate augmented reality, global livestreaming, buy-now channels, and hybrid sales formats.

Christie's is dedicated to advancing responsible culture throughout its business and communities worldwide, including achieving sustainability through net zero carbon emissions by 2030, and actively using its platform in the art world to amplify under-represented voices and support positive change.
