Comment: Joy McCall, Head of Department, British Decorative Arts:

Whilst we knew that there would be strong competition for the top and higher end lots the prices realised exceeded our expectations. The impressive Orange and Lemons service sets a new record for a Clarice Cliff service at Christie's, who remain market leaders in this category. The Sunspots vase, shape 358, realised almost three times the low estimate. The saleroom as usual was filled with eager bidders creating a vibrant atmosphere.
