Peter Kloman, Specialist American Art department, Los Angeles: "We are very pleased with this evening's auction, which generated significant interest from new and established collectors alike. We witnessed fervent bidding in the room and on the phones for California plein air, illustration, Modernist, and Western and Taos subject matter. We were particularly thrilled with the launch of Christie's LIVE™ in our Los Angeles saleroom, which strengthened and energized the sale with bids received online in excess of $100,000 and 13% of the sale sold or directly underbid through the internet. We now look forward to our next Los Angeles California, Western and American art auction on April 30th, 2008."
