Jody Wilkie, Senior Vice-President and International Specialist Head of European Ceramics: "The stellar results of the sale speak for themselves! With no reserves to hinder bidders and with the tax-exempt status of the sale as an added incentive, Meissen enthusiasts waved their paddles, clicked their 'mice', and bid enthusiastically on the phone and by leaving absentee bids. The sale was 100% sold, with the aggregate hammer price exceeding the high of the estimate by over 25%. We are thrilled that Dr. W.A. Criswell's legacy has been secured with the generous endowment of Criswell College through the auspices of the Criswell Foundation, the beneficiary of today's auction."
