Comment: Sebastian Davies, Director & Specialist Head of Department and Simon Andrews, Director:

"We are pleased with the results of the sale which fetched a total in excess of £1 million and included some of the finest pieces of design from key periods within the late 19th and 20th centuries. We are particularly delighted with the exceptional response to the rare Jeckyll andirons which surpassed all expectations to more than quadruple their pre sale low estimate. The results of this sale illustrate the enduring longevity of the established creators of late 19th and 20th century decorative arts, sculpture and design and Christie's leadership in this field."
