Scott Torrence, Head of Christie's Los Angeles Wine Sales, says: "Christie's Los Angeles welcomed a full room of active and seasoned bidders last night and some of whom we had not seen since the Doris Duke sale held in 2003 in our New York saleroom. The crowd's exuberant bidding ensured an outstanding 100% sold rate, and a sale total more than $800,000 above our highest pre-sale expectations. Records continue to tumble, and with the $252,000 paid for Romanée-Conti 1990, Christie's Los Angeles now holds the auction record for Bordeaux and Burgundy, with Christie's London holding the record for Rhône. The scope of the sale, its provenance, and the high quality of the lots clearly attracted many of our most important buyers and more importantly held their attention from the opening of the first lot to the last fall of the gavel. The debut of Christie's LIVE™ also attracted many successful bidders and added to the overall energy felt throughout the entire sale. We now look forward to our exceptional Evening Sale next Tuesday in New York and welcoming back to Los Angeles next Saturday many of the same bidders to partake in the much-anticipated Grand Crus II: Finest and Rarest Wines from the Superlative Collection of Christen Sveaas."
